

HARTFORD COUNTY FIRE EMERGENCY PLAN
FIFTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE

Hosted by the Windsor Locks Fire Department
2 Volunteer Drive
Windsor Locks, Ct.

The Hartford County Fire Emergency Plan invites you to their Fifty-Seventh Annual Memorial Service on Sunday, October 14, 2007. This year's Service will be hosted by the Windsor Locks Fire Department and will be in combination with their Department's Annual Memorial Service. Firefighters, families, and friends are asked to join the Windsor Locks Fire Department in their Services at 1800 hours at the Memorial Bell in front of Fire Headquarters on Volunteer Drive.

Line up for the County Memorial Service will be at 1830 hours at Fire Headquarters followed by a short march to St. Robert Bellarmine Church on South Elm Street for Services. Services at St. Roberts will start at 1900 hours. A shuttle bus will be available to those who cannot march. All Firefighters are requested to be in Class A uniform. Refreshments will be served at Fire Headquarters immediately following the Services.

All Departments who have lost members due to death since last years service are asked to make sure those names are forwarded to Chet or Pat Haber by October 5 to be included in this years program. We are asking each Department whose members will be remembered in this years Service to invite the families of their deceased members.

If you have any questions regarding the Service or directions, please contact Chief Gary Ruggiero at 860-982-5329 (cell) or gruggier@rcn.com (e-mail).

Chet or Pat Haber can be contacted at 860-828-3242 regarding the names of the deceased members.
